Memphis may well congratulate herself that it is no warmer here than it is. Other cities won by Strychaine; Joe Hunt second, High terday, the the thermometer being 93° in the Is to our vision an established fact, basing of evidences and testimony. On every hand the thermometer standing at 101° in the shade. At Richmond the figure 106 was reached, but a heavy thunder and rain storm | houses enlarged, unusually large stocks coming on at 2 p.m. caused the mercury to every variety of goods known to the trade fall 158 in half an hour. The Park in Memphis are being received by our merchants, and al seem to be confident of a large and profitable tinued heat. The usually bright green leaves are becoming parched and shriveled; trade. The most striking and gratifying changes and improvements effected are those the grass looks as if it had been placed in being made by Messrs. Bejach & Brash, the an oven. On the streets those who were live and progressive merchants doing busi compelled to be out hugged the slightest ness at No. 273 Main street, well known to margin of shade, and business men did most of their outdoor work early in the morning.

During the extremely hot week only twenty.

Bejach & Brash established various branch shops by the Petersburg and Viction Raillow. During the extremely hot week only twenty-six death were recorded up to last night, and none of these were from unadulterated sunstroke. The maximum temperature yesterday was 98° and the minimum 77°. their acts, that the lost confidence is fully restored, they have discontinued all their branch houses. All but two have already been closed. These last two, one at Vicksburg, Mississippi, the other at Huntsville Alabama, are now closing and in a few weet. Alabama, are now closing up their affairs, and in a lew weeks the goods in store at these points will be returned here, and the business thereafter continued here only. In addition to the house now occupied they have rented the three lofts of 271 Main street, where they will conduct a jobbing business, embracing dry goods, notions, clothing, boots, shoes, hats and such other goods as they, by virtue of cheap purchases may find to their and their customers' interests to handle. We further take pleasure in stating that they have se-cured the services of Mr. C. H. Myers, so long and favorably known to the trade, t he asked her if she would ever live with him again. She replied "No." He fired a revolver at and missed her. She sprang from the second-story window to the ground unhurt. Her sister, Mrs. Waterhouse, entered the room and was twice fired on, one ball passing through the palm of her hand and the other entering her breast. Boynton then shot himself through the pit of the stomach and expired instantly. Mrs. Waterhouse will probably die.

Blessed With Refreshing Rains. Sr. Louis, August 13.—The storm of last night completely broke the backbone of the heated term, and to-day the temperature was heated term, and to-day the temperature was quite comfortable. Another shower fell this afternoon, still further lowering the mercury, and it is now hoped we shall have no more extremely hot weather. Showers have fallen in different parts of the State since yesterday morning, and hopes are revived that the corn crop, if not wholly saved, will be greatly benefited.
